

Town of Manchester Face Covering Policy for Election Workers

While COVID 19 pandemic is still a health and safety concern in 2022 and COVID cases in Jackson County have been on the rise it is important to implement necessary procedures to protect our election workers along with the voting public.

Effective with the February 15, 2022 primary election the Town of Manchester Election Workers are required to wear a face covering for all election activities.

This policy is effective until further notice.
